Welcome and Announcements

Lighting the Candle of Peace

Reader: “Mary entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the child leaped in her womb.” (Luke 1:40)

In the Jewish tradition, people often greeted one another with “shalom,” a word that meant “peace, harmony, and wholeness.” That sense of wholeness enveloped Mary as she arrived at Elizabeth’s warm home and felt Elizabeth’s embrace.

Reader: In some ways, Mary’s life was shattered, as her pregnancy kept her in constant danger. Yet, all the broken pieces came together in Elizabeth’s arms, for Elizabeth knew Mary’s past, welcomed her present condition, and longed for her miraculous future. With that enfolding, the truth that Mary had been holding so close suddenly echoed in Elizabeth’s words: “Blessed are you among women.” Mary felt whole; she was at peace.

Reader: We walk in peace this Advent, even as we look at our own shattered lives—our broken relationships, stress, or depression. For peace is a wholeness that comes, not when life is perfect or safe, but when we begin to understand that it is in God that we move and breathe and have our being. We nurture peace, knowing that even in our brokenness, we live in the womb of God.

All: We light the candle of peace, proclaiming God's wholeness in a broken world. We long for the day when we beat our swords into plowshares and spears into pruning hooks, when we will learn war no more.

(Light the first and second candle.)

Prayer (unison):

God of peace, grant us serenity and wholeness in this Advent season. Even when our lives are shattered, help us to sense your embrace. Amen.

Hymn 10 *On Jordan's Bank the Baptist's Cry

Prayer of Confession

God of Peace, we confess that we walk away from your wholeness. We nurse our resentments, feed our bitterness, and stoke our anger. We accept lies as truth, exploit neighbors, abuse the earth, and refuse your mercy. Forgive us. Grant us wisdom to welcome your way.

(Silent confession)

Pardon

Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Sung Response Comfort, Comfort You My People (Hymn 3)

Comfort, comfort you my people,
Tell of peace, thus saith our God;
Comfort those who sit in darkness
Bowed beneath oppression's load.
Speak ye to Jerusalem
Of the peace that waits for them;
Tell them that their sins I cover,
And their warfare now is over.

Time with the Children

The children can leave for Sunday Spirit after Time with the Children.

Hebrew Bible Lesson Philippians 1:3-11

I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart, for all of you share in God's grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus. And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

Epistle Lesson

Luke 3:1-6

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah,

“The voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.

Every valley shall be filled,

and every mountain and hill shall be made low,
and the crooked shall be made straight,

and the rough ways made smooth;
and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’”

Prayer after Communion and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

JOYFUL NOISE CHILDREN'S CHOIR

At Bedford Presbyterian Church, we LOVE music. We believe every child should have the chance to sing and find their voice. We are asking children of all ages to join us throughout the year. All the songs will be posted on-line well in advance of our singing and we will rehearse the song the morning of our sharing. Simple!

Don Hiller-Dupont leads Joyful Noise. Please email Don with any questions at dondupont@outlook.com.

Parents, go to our website to join the Joyful Noise's Google Classroom!

The date of our next performance is December 24th during the 5 pm Christmas Eve service.

Upcoming Youth Group Event

On Friday, December 17th at 7 pm, youth, their friends, and any college students who are home are invited to the Youth Group Christmas Party where there will be food, games and good times to celebrate the holiday season.

Cookies Needed!!

The Mount Kisco Interfaith Food Pantry will be distributing red holiday bags with some special items for pantry clients. The pantry is requesting 'store bought' packaged cookies (no tins and no larger than approximately 1 pound) to include in the bags. A donation box will be available in the church vestibule and our goal is to receive 30 packages of cookies by December 15th. For questions or more information, please contact Cecilia Rosenblum at: 914-645-2096 or clr4tny@optonline.net.

Neighbors Link Holiday Gift Drive

Drop off by December 12th

Neighbors Link's traditional Mercado de las Fiestas (Holiday Market) is back for their clients in Mount Kisco and Ossining!

Parents are able to select gifts for their children. They are collecting new, unwrapped gifts for children ages 0-12 and $25 gift cards for teenagers 13-18.

Please drop off all donations in the bin at the church.

SECOND SUNDAY SOUP

We will be having Second Sunday Soup on Jan. 9th, Feb. 13th and March 13th! We are looking for volunteers to make soup for each of these weekends. Please email Sarah Ryan to sign up at Sarahryan237@gmail.com.

CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

We are reviving Circle of Friends!
Members can host small celebrations throughout the year to help foster and build relationships in our church community. Some ideas could include hosting a dinner, a luncheon, or even an afternoon tea!

You decide the date, time, and amount of people, and we will organize the sign-up! If you're interested in hosting, please e-mail Don Hiller-Dupont at dondupont@outlook.com.

Your generosity is very appreciated.

CHRISTMAS EVE PAGEANT

Your child is invited to be a part of the Christmas pageant at BPC! The pageant will be presented at the Christmas Eve service at 5 pm. This beloved tradition offers each child a unique experience of the Christmas story, with its enduring message of hope, peace, joy and love.

If you are interested in participating, please email Don Hiller-Dupont at dondupont@outlook.com. We would like to have a confirmation of children interested so we can make preparations throughout the month of December.

Thank you,

Don Dupont, Sarah Ryan & Kathy DiBiasi
