Prelude Festive Music and Carols for Two Trumpets and Organ

Welcome

Opening Sentences

Leader: In the beginning, there was the Word.

People: The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Leader: Through the Word, all things came into being.

People: In the Word was life, and that life was humanity's light.

Leader: And the Word became flesh and lived among us,

People: Filled with grace and filled with truth.

Carol 41 O Come, All Ye Faithful

Prayer

All: Anointed one, on this day of joy, illuminate us so that we might understand your mystery. As we celebrate your birth, may we be born again, by your Spirit. Amen.

First Reading Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.
You have multiplied exultation;
you have increased its joy;

they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders,
and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Great will be his authority,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Second Reading

Luke 1:46-55

And Mary said,
"My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has looked with favor on the lowly state of his servant.
Surely from now on all generations will call me blessed,
for the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and holy is his name;

indeed, his mercy is for those who fear him
from generation to generation.
He has shown strength with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He has brought down the powerful from their thrones
and lifted up the lowly;
he has filled the hungry with good things
and sent the rich away empty.
He has come to the aid of his child Israel,
in remembrance of his mercy,
according to the promise he made to our ancestors,
to Abraham and to his descendants forever."

Carol 38 It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

Third Reading Luke 2:1-20

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no place in the guest room.

Now in that same region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for see, I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us."

So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them, and Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told them.

Prayer of Dedication

Lighting the Christ Candle

Reader 1: The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

Reader 2: Mary felt joy and pondered it in her heart at the birth of her son.

(Relight the first, second, third, and fourth candles.)

Reader 1: The shepherds believed the angel of the Lord and the multitude of the heavenly host who praised God!

Reader 2: We do good in the world, glorifying and praising God for all that has been told to us.

All: We light the Christ candle, celebrating the arrival of the Light that shines in lost and broken places.

(Light the Christ candle.)

All: Gracious God, grant us the ability to see the light of Christ, to feel the quiet presence of the Holy Spirit, to believe in the Great Mystery of this season, and to do in the world actions that only reflect the hope of the babe born in the manger. Amen.

Lighting of Our Candles

Carol 60

Silent Night, Holy Night

Stille Nacht

Please dip the unlit candle toward the flame as the light is passed.

The Prayer for Christmas

O God, grant us such love and wonder that with shepherds and magi and pilgrims unknown, we may come to adore the holy child. As you came in the stillness of the night long ago, so enter our lives and world again this night. Overcome our doubts and our fears with the light of Christ's presence that we may see clearly the way to walk, the truth to speak, and the life you would have us live. Amen.

Carol 40
